Tillamook County Rodeo Queen's Contract

1. Duties begin following your coronation, first Saturday in November, thru the month of December of the following year. During your reign as the Tillamook County Rodeo Queen you will be the "Ambassador" for the Tillamook County Rodeo and will be expected to portray the highest of moral standards and show the ideals of womanhood. Appearance shall reflect being "on the job" at all times setting an example beyond reproach.
2. Represent Tillamook County Rodeo with a positive and family value attitude to the best of your ability throughout your reign. As Tillamook County Rodeo Queen you will be expected to uphold the proper lady-like image of a Rodeo Queen.
3. Applicants shall not have children, been pregnant or become pregnant during the reign.
4. The use of inappropriate behavior and/or language will not be tolerated while representing the Tillamook County Rodeo. Drinking of alcoholic beverages or use of drugs will not be permitted while you are representing the Tillamook County Rodeo Association at designated activities. Use of tobacco products is also prohibited.
5. Any and all information text or photos on or in any internet chat rooms including, but not limited to, "My Space, You Tube, Facebook, Twitter, instagram" will be monitored. Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated.
6. Being available to attend all scheduled Rodeo Board Meetings, and other Tillamook County Rodeo designated events and appearances that are mutually decided between Tillamook County Rodeo Court Advisor, Queen and parent/guardian/chaperone, Including but not limited to the Miss Rodeo Queen Clinic, luncheons, radio interviews, coronation dinners, parades, and rodeos unless there is an emergency or illness. Any requests for not attending scheduled events must be approved by the Queen's Advisor/director. You will be expected to help at the rodeo the summer, following your reign, by carry carrying the flag at the grand Entry in both Friday and Saturday performances of the Tillamook Co Rodeo.
7. As Queen you will be required to maintain a horse that is ready at all times and suitable for the activity that you will be asked to participate in. Horse & Tack shall be clean, in proper and safe working order at all times. Provide transportation for yourself, horse and insurance for both. Liability insurance is provided by Tillamook County Rodeo when attending certain approved functions.
8. It shall be your responsibility as Queen to keep yourself neat, clean, and well groomed at all times. Hair off your face, with wings, soft curls not ringlets styled similar to Miss Rodeo America. Nails, hands, face clean with flattering makeup. Use of false nails or eyelashes may be used but are not required. Clothes must be clean and free of tears or blemishes, jeans pressed and starched. Hats clean and blocked to a style that flatters your face. Boots clean and free of dirt and dust. As Queen you will be expected to wear appropriate clothing and accessories to each event, meeting or appointment while representing the Tillamook County Rodeo Association as determined by the Court Advisor. A backup outfit should always be available. The court wardrobe is to be worn at specified functions only.
9. As Queen you shall assume financial responsibility for all preparations, clothing and travel expenses incurred during your reign. No Money is provided by Tillamook Co. Rodeo Association so all monies shall be generated from sponsors, or at your own expense. All sponsor monies shall be run through the special Tillamook County Rodeo Present Queen account. Providing there is money in your account, upon submitting receipts, you will be reimbursed for, but not limited to, clothing, hats, boots, autograph sheets, fuel, entry fees, stall fees, lodging while attending approved events that are required to represent Tillamook County Rodeo. You will not be reimbursed for tack or food for yourself or your horse, farrier, or veterinary care. Court Advisor has total authority as to how the money is spent.

10. Obtain permission from Tillamook Rodeo for all fundraising events endorsements or solicitations.
11. Helping distribute TCRA information as requested by TCRA Board.
12. If, as Tillamook County Rodeo Queen you decide to apply for and represent other rodeo associations after your Tillamook County Rodeo reign is fulfilled, you may not solicit service organizations or business in Tillamook County, for any rodeo purpose, without written permission from the TCRA board of directors.
13. If, at any time you are observed violating any of these rules, by the Tillamook County Rodeo Queen Director/Advisor, members of the Board of Directors, or any of the Tillamook County Rodeo Association membership, or brought to our attention by the general public you will be barred from participating in the next event; the second violation will result in your dismissal as the Queen of the Tillamook County Rodeo. At this time the Runner up will be asked to assume the duties of Queen. If there is no runner up the TCRA advisor and the board of directors reserves the right to either appoint a Queen or contact the past Queen (in reverse chronological order) until a Queen is found or forego a Queen for the rest of the reign.

The following is the property of the Tillamook County Rodeo Association and will be returned in good condition within 10 days of completion of reign or immediately upon dismissal.
